

Housing Assistance Payments Contract, Part B

Basic Version

Section 8 Tenant-Based Assistance Rental Voucher Program

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Public and Indian Housing

Part B: Contract Terms

1. Definitions

Contract unit. The housing unit rented by the tenant. (The contract unit is described in Part A.)

Family. The persons who may reside in the unit with assistance under the program.

HA. Housing agency.

HAP contract. This housing assistance payments contract. The contract consists of Part A and Part B.

Housing quality standards (HQS). The minimum quality standards for housing assisted under the Section 8 tenant-based programs.

HQS. Housing quality standards.

HUD. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

HUD requirements. HUD requirements for the Section 8 programs. HUD requirements are issued by HUD headquarters, as regulations, Federal Register notices or other binding program directives.

Lease addendum. The lease language required by HUD.

Premises. The building or complex in which the contract unit is located, including common areas and grounds.

Program. The HUD Section 8 voucher program.

Rent to owner. The total monthly rent payable to the owner under the lease for the contract unit. Rent to owner includes payment for any services, maintenance and utilities to be provided by the owner in accordance with the lease.

Section 8. Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 United States Code 1437f).

Tenant. The tenant is the family member who leases the contract unit from the owner.

Voucher program. The Section 8 rental voucher program. Under this program, HUD provides funds to an HA for rent subsidy on behalf of eligible families. The HA has entered into this HAP contract to provide assistance to the family under the voucher program.

2. Purpose

- This is a HAP contract between the HA and the owner.
- The family is a participant in the Section 8 voucher program. The purpose of the HAP contract is to assist the tenant to lease a dwelling unit from the owner for occupancy by the family with tenant-based assistance under the voucher program.
- The HA must pay housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the HAP contract. HUD provides funds to the HA to pay housing assistance payments for eligible families.

3. Lease of Contract Unit

- The owner has leased the contract unit to the tenant for occupancy by the family with assistance under the Section 8 voucher program.

- The lease must include word-for-word all provisions of the lease addendum that is required by HUD. If there is any conflict between the lease addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the language of the HUD-required lease addendum shall control.

- The lease has been approved by the HA. The owner certifies that the lease has been executed by the tenant and the owner in the form approved by the HA. The lease may not be revised unless the HA gives notice that the lease revision has been approved.

- The HA has not screened the family's behavior or suitability for tenancy. Such screening is the owner's own responsibility.

4. Use and Occupancy of Contract Unit

- The HAP contract only applies to the family and the contract unit.
- The composition of the family residing in the contract unit must be approved by the HA. The members of the family approved by the HA at execution of the HAP contract are listed in Part A of the HAP contract.

5. Maintenance and Inspection

- The owner must maintain the contract unit and premises in accordance with the HQS.
- The lease must specify what utilities and appliances are to be supplied by the owner, and what utilities and appliances are to be supplied by the tenant.
- The owner is not responsible for a breach of the HQS that is caused by any of the following:
 - The family fails to pay for any utilities that the owner is not required to pay for under the lease, but which are to be paid by the tenant;
 - The family fails to provide and maintain any appliances that the owner is not required to provide under the lease, but which are to be provided by the tenant; or
 - Any member of the household or guest damages the contract unit or the premises (damages beyond ordinary wear and tear).
- If the owner does not maintain the unit in accordance with the HQS, HA remedies for such breach of the HQS include suspension of housing assistance payments, abatement or other reduction of housing assistance payments, termination of housing assistance payments, and termination of the HAP contract. The HA may not exercise such remedies against the owner because of an HQS breach for which the family is responsible (as described in section 5.c), and that is not caused by the owner.
- The HA will not make any housing assistance payments for a dwelling unit that fails to meet the HQS, unless the owner corrects the defect within the period specified by the HA and the HA verifies the correction. If a defect is life threatening, the owner must correct the defect within no more than 24 hours. For other defects, the owner must correct the defect within the period specified by the HA

f. The HA will inspect the contract unit and premises at least annually and at such other times as the HA determines necessary, to assure that the unit is in accordance with the HQS.

g. The HA must notify the owner of defects shown by the inspection.

h. Maintenance and replacement (including redecoration) must be in accordance with the standard practice for the building concerned as established by the owner.

6. Term of HAP Contract

a. Relation to lease term. The term of the HAP contract begins on the first day of the term of the lease, and terminates on the last day of the term of the lease.

b. When HAP contract terminates. The term of the HAP contract terminates if any of the following occurs:

- i. The lease terminates;
- ii. The HAP contract terminates; or
- iii. The HA terminates program assistance for the family.

c. Termination of HAP contract.

i. The HA may terminate program assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with HUD requirements. If the HA terminates program assistance for the family, the HAP contract terminates automatically.

ii. If the family moves out of the unit, the HAP contract terminates automatically.

iii. The HAP contract terminates automatically 180 calendar days after the last housing assistance payment to the owner.

iv. The HA may terminate the HAP contract if the HA determines, in accordance with HUD requirements, that available program funding is not sufficient to support continued assistance for families in the program.

v. The HA may terminate the HAP contract if the HA determines that the contract unit does not meet the HQS space standards because of an increase in family size or a change in family composition.

vi. If the family breaks up, the HA has discretion to determine which members of the family continue to receive assistance in the program. The HA may terminate the HAP contract, or may continue housing assistance payments on behalf of family members who remain in the contract unit.

vii. The HA may terminate the HAP contract if the HA determines that the owner has breached the HAP contract.

7. Termination of Tenancy by Owner

a. The owner may only terminate the tenancy in accordance with the lease.

b. The owner must give notice of termination in accordance with HUD requirements.

c. The owner must give the HA a copy of any owner eviction notice to the tenant at the same time that the owner gives notice to the tenant. Owner eviction notice means a notice to vacate, or a complaint or other initial pleading used under State or local law to commence an eviction action.

8. Rent to Owner

a. The owner may not demand or accept any payment from the tenant for rent of the unit in excess of the rent to owner as provided in the HA-approved lease. The owner must immediately return any excess rent payment by the tenant.

b. The rent to owner must be reasonable in comparison with rents charged for comparable units in the private unassisted market, or for units assisted under the Section 8 certificate program. The HA shall have the right to review any rent increase during the term of the lease to determine whether the rent increase is reasonable. If the increase is not reasonable, the HA will disapprove such increase.

c. The family is not responsible for payment of the portion of rent to owner covered by the housing assistance payment under the HAP contract between the owner and the HA. The owner may not terminate the tenancy of the family for nonpayment of the HA housing assistance payment.

9. Housing Assistance Payment

a. When paid.

i. During the term of the HAP contract, the HA must make housing assistance payments to the owner on behalf of the family. Housing assistance payments will only be paid to the owner during the lease term, and while the family is residing in the unit.

ii. The HA must pay the housing assistance payment promptly when due to the owner.

b. Amount of payment.

i. The amount of the housing assistance payment will be determined by the HA in accordance with HUD requirements.

ii. The amount of the housing assistance payment is subject to change during the HAP contract term. Any change in the amount of the housing assistance payment will be effective on the date stated in a notice by the HA to the owner.

c. Pro-ration. The housing assistance payment for the first and last month of the HAP contract term will be pro-rated for a partial month.

d. Limit of HA responsibility. The HA will not pay the rent payable by the family, or any claim by the owner against the family. The HA is only responsible for making housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the HAP contract.

e. Application of payment. The housing assistance payment is credited toward the monthly rent to the owner under the lease.

f. Family move-out. If the family moves out of the unit, the HA will not make any housing assistance payment to the owner for any month after the month when the family moves out.

g. Conditions for housing assistance payments. Unless the owner complies with all provisions of the HAP contract, the owner does not have a right to receive housing assistance payments.

h. Overpayment to owner. If the HA determines that the owner is not entitled to the housing assistance payment or any part of it, the HA, in addition to other remedies, may deduct the amount of the overpayment from any amounts due the owner (including amounts due under any other Section 8 assistance contract).

10. Owner Certification

During the term of this contract, the owner certifies that:

- a. The owner is maintaining the contract unit in accordance with the HQS.
- b. The contract unit is leased to the tenant. The lease is in accordance with this contract and program requirements.
- c. The rent to owner does not exceed rents charged by the owner for other comparable unassisted units.
- d. The family does not own or have any interest in the contract unit. If the owner is a cooperative, the family may be a member of the cooperative.
- e. To the best of the owner's knowledge, the members of the family reside in the contract unit, and the unit is the family's only residence.

11. Security Deposit

- a. The owner may collect a security deposit from the tenant.
- b. When the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, in accordance with the lease, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, damages to the unit or other amounts that the tenant owes under the Lease.
- c. The owner must give the tenant a written list of all items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount, if any, used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the unused balance to the tenant.

12. Prohibition of Discrimination

In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations:

- a. The owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status, or disability in connection with this contract.
- b. The owner must cooperate with the HA and HUD in conducting equal opportunity compliance reviews and complaint investigations.

13. Rights of HA if Owner Breaches the HAP Contract

- a. Any of the following actions by the owner (including a principal or other interested party) is a breach of the HAP contract:
 - i. If the owner has violated any obligation under this HAP contract, including the owner's obligations to maintain the contract unit in accordance with the HQS.
 - ii. If the owner has violated any obligation under any other housing assistance payments contract under Section 8.
 - iii. If the owner has committed fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any Federal housing assistance program.
 - iv. For projects with mortgages insured by HUD or loans made by HUD, if the owner has failed to comply with the regulations for the applicable mortgage insurance or loan program, with the mortgage or mortgage note, or with the regulatory agreement; or if the owner has committed fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with the mortgage or loan.
 - v. If the owner has engaged in drug-trafficking.

b. If the HA determines that a breach has occurred, the HA may exercise any of its rights or remedies under the HAP contract. The HA shall notify the owner of such determination, including a brief statement of the reasons for the determination. The notice by the HA to the owner may require the owner to take corrective action (as verified by the HA) by a time prescribed in the notice.

c. The HA's rights and remedies against the owner under the HAP contract include suspension of housing assistance payments, abatement or other reduction of housing assistance payments, termination of housing assistance payments, and termination of the HAP contract.

d. The HA's exercise or non-exercise of any remedy for owner breach of the HAP contract shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise that or any other right or remedy at any time.

14. HA and HUD Access to Premises and Owner Records

- a. The owner must provide any information pertinent to the HAP contract the HA or HUD may reasonably require.
- b. The HA, HUD and the Comptroller General of the United States shall have full and free access to the contract unit and the premises, and to all accounts and other records of the owner that are pertinent to the HAP contract, including the right to examine or audit the records, and to make copies. The owner must grant such access to computerized or other electronic records, and to any computers, equipment or facilities containing such records, and must provide any information or assistance needed to access the records.

15. Exclusion of Third Party Rights

- a. The HA does not assume any responsibility for injury to, or any liability to, any person injured as a result of the owner's action or failure to act in connection with the implementation of the HAP contract, or as a result of any other action or failure to act by the owner.
- b. The owner is not the agent of the HA, and the HAP contract does not create or affect any relationship between the HA and any lender to the owner or any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the owner in connection with implementation of the HAP contract.
- c. Nothing in the HAP contract shall be construed as creating any right of the family or other third party (other than HUD) to enforce any provision of the HAP contract, or to assert any claim against HUD, the HA or the owner under the HAP contract.

16. Conflict of Interest

a. Prohibited interest. The following classes of persons may not have any direct or indirect interest in the HAP contract:

- i. Any present or former member or officer of the HA (except a participant commissioner);
- ii. Any employee of the HA, or any contractor, subcontractor or agent of the HA, who formulates policy or who influences decisions with respect to the programs;
- iii. Any public official, member of a governing body, or State or local legislator, who exercises functions or responsibilities with respect to the programs; or
- iv. Any member of the Congress of the United States.

b. When prohibition applies. The prohibition of such interest shall apply during tenure as a member of such classes, and for one year thereafter.

c. Owner certification. Owner certifies that no person has or will have a prohibited interest, at execution of the HAP contract, or during the HAP contract term.

d. Disclosure. The owner shall be responsible for assuring that any member of such classes promptly discloses their interest or prospective interest to the HA and HUD.

e. Waiver. The conflict of interest prohibition under this section may be waived by the HUD Field Office for good cause.

17. Assignment of the HAP Contract

a. The owner may not assign the HAP contract to a new owner without the prior written consent of the HA. The HA may deny approval to assign the HAP contract to a new owner (in whole or in part):

i. If directed by HUD because:

(1) The federal government has instituted an administrative or judicial action against the owner for violation of the Fair Housing Act or other federal equal opportunity requirements, and such action is pending; or

(2) A court or administrative agency has determined that the owner violated the Fair Housing Act or other federal equal opportunity requirements.

ii. If the proposed assignee:

(1) Has violated obligations under a housing assistance payments contract under Section 8 (42 U.S.C. 1437f);

(2) Has committed fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program;

(3) Has engaged in drug-trafficking;

(4) Has a history or practice of non-compliance with the HQS for units leased under the Section 8 tenant-based programs, or with applicable housing standards for units leased with project-based Section 8 assistance or leased under any other federal housing program;

(5) Has a history or practice of renting units that fail to meet State or local housing codes; or

(6) Has not paid State or local real estate taxes, fines or assessments.

b. The assignee must agree to comply with the HAP contract. The agreement must be in writing, and in a form acceptable to the HA. The transferee must give the HA a copy of the executed agreement.

18. Written Notices

When this HAP contract requires any notice by the HA or the owner, the notice must be in writing.

19. Entire Agreement; Interpretation

a. The HAP contract contains the entire agreement between the owner and the HA.

b. The HAP contract shall be interpreted and implemented in accordance with HUD requirements.

20. Warranty of Capacity

The party who is executing this HAP contract warrants that such party has authority to execute the HAP contract on behalf of the owner.
